

Who is the Student of Knowledge?

Ash-Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azeez bin Baaz (رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى)

Ash-Shaykh, al-Imaam ‘Abdul-‘Azeez bin ‘Abdillaah bin Baaz (رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى) said:

“And it is known with certainty that the taalibul-‘Ilm (student of knowledge) in reality, he is the one who distinguishes al-Haqq (the Truth) from baatil (falsehood) with its manifest proofs and clear evidences, and he reads the books of the guided Imaams, and he takes from them what is in agreement with the Haqq, and he leaves that which its falsehood is apparent and is not in agreement with the Haqq.”

[From his book Ahamiyyatul-‘Ilm (The Importance of Knowledge), page 34]

Translated by Aboo Sufyaan ‘Uthmaan Beecher

Related links:

"The Light of Furqaan" - ash-Shaykh Aboo 'Uthmaan al-'Anjaree
"Do not mix Truth with falsehood..." - the Tafseer of ash-Shaykh as-Sa'dee